Synopsis

The classic novel by Natsume Soseki in a revitalizing new translation. Tokyo-ite known only as Botchan thinks teaching a bunch of high-school yokels in the sticks will be simple--after all, they're essentially living in yesteryear. But our narrator soon learns that he is surrounded by schemers and tricksters and that the teaching job that should have been a walk in the park is more like a walk off a plank. Can he survive and make it back to civilization on Moral Fiber alone?
