Customer Reviews

I was looking forward to using this resource with the children at my church, but upon opening it on my computer, the Powerpoint lessons were not helpful and some of the slideshows only had one or two slides on them for a whole lesson, which was just not useful. The sound effects were also not helpful--I could find better ones online. For the price, the material is not nearly as good as it could be. Pinterest and other websites were more helpful for me in setting up a curriculum. I was disappointed.
