I love reading comics with my kids. They love reading them at bedtime. This is one of the comic I read for them recently. This is nice. They loved it.

Another comic-style book that successfully becomes part of the Minecraft storytelling universe. While some may claim that children enjoy this type of books more, I have to say that at 28 years of age, I enjoyed its writing, twists and humor all the same.

I'm thoroughly impressed with how this book progresses, with each book the author is taking the art of minecraft storytelling to the next level. In this one there is a catchy storyline with a slight touch of minecraft humor, its fantastic for reading out to children keeps them interested all the way.
